Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated
Pi Alpha Zeta Chapter
Zeta Youth Auxiliaries Overview 2026

Expectations of Advisors

- Active Members of our Organization: We are required to operate under the rules and regulations of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.
- Certified/Approved: We must be trained through the National Zeta Youth Affiliate Training Program as certified Zeta Youth Advisors.
    - We must complete and pass criminal background checks for the safety and protection of our youth.
    - All Youth Advisors must be Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR), or First Aid Certified. One Advisor trained in Automated External Defibrillator (AED) Certified is encouraged but not required.
- Commitment: We should be dedicated to our organization, co-advisors, families, fellow youth, and communities.
- Enthusiasm: We should maintain enthusiasm for our organization and its programs, as well as our communities.
- Good Communication: We should listen, be honest, praise each other, and offer constructive criticism.
- Role Model: All Advisors are expected to be examples for others to follow.
- Confidentiality: We will be privy to confidential information while serving the organization as members and advisors, and we will respect others' right to privacy. We will be in an appropriate environment before discussing confidential information with people who need to know.

Expectations of Parents

- Commitment: Ensure that your youth is present for activities and prepared.
- Good Communication: Much of our communication will be done via email or by phone. There will be times when you will need to RSVP for events.
- Transportation: Per our National Office we are not allowed to transport the youth.
- Financial Support: We do our best to fundraise but there will be times when we ask for donations for programs and supplies.
- Teamwork: Work with us and other parents to make our year is successful as possible.
- Check-in Policy: Parents are to contact an advisor at the beginning of in-person events and sign your youth out at the end.
- Facilitate Learning: Ensure that your youth learn their information and complete assignments. Ensure that they have a space where distractions are limited. Remember that these calls are public, and all youth will be present, please ensure that everyone within earshot and camera view is appropriate.
- Sign and return Family Conduct and Family Manual Agreement.

Expectations of Youth

- Participate: Come ready to learn and open to trying something new. Be kind and respectful to advisors and follow club members.

- Attire: Come to events in the proper attire which includes their club shirt, in the appropriate colors and shoes.
- Commitment: Being a ZYA member is a unique opportunity. Commit to learning information specific to your club. Practice, practice, practice.
